

An Example for the Reading of the Epistle

Section 240

If there are two or more readings, the first reading is intoned as such:

Breth-ren, Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Je - sus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a ser - vant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the Cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted

Him and given Him the Name which is above every name, that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things under the earth, and that ev - 'ry tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Fath - er.

If there is only one reading, or for the last reading, it is intoned as such:

Breth-ren, Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Je - sus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a ser-vant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the Cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the Name which is above every name, that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things under the earth, and that ev - 'ry tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Fath - er.
